Daily Narrative of Events
3d Battalion, 7th Marines
1 December 1951 - 31 December 1951 (Inclusive)

1 December 1951

At 0030 I "G" Company personnel heard the enemy digging in the vicinity of DTZ77457. 60mm mortar fire was delivered on the same DF with unknown results. At 0205 I one enemy deserter surrendered to "G" Company personnel at DTZ78454. The one squad outpost established by "H" Company at 1800 on 30 November in the vicinity of DTZ84468 had negative contact and returned to the MLR at 0500. The "G" Company one squad outpost established in the vicinity of DTZ79450 on 30 November also had negative contact and returned to the MLR at 0600. At 1110 the L-9 aerial observer reported as having observed the enemy in groups and individually: the largest group totaling about 10. At 1220 the L-9 aerial observer noted small groups of enemy in and around trenches, the largest being a group of 4. By 1500 the 81mm mortar platoon had fired 222 rounds of HEH for harassing and interdiction and one fire mission on DTZ72459. A machine gun and Burp gun were silenced at DTZ72459 by the 81mm fire. From 1500 until 1545 I 81mm mortars fired on enemy in the vicinity of DTZ7456; results 11 definite enemy KIA and 9 estimated WIA. From 1530 until 1630 I "H" Company received 73 rounds of 81mm mortar fire, which caused 12 friendly casualties. Six of the casualties were evacuated by helicopter. Immediately after "H" Company started receiving enemy fire the 81mm mortars and supporting 4.2mm mortars started firing on enemy positions. At 1545 I 1605I, Bingo was fired and repeated at 1605I with unknown results. From 1620 until 1630 I "G" Company received 30 rounds of 81mm mortar fire resulting in one friendly WIA which was not evacuated. At 1800 I "I" Company established a one squad outpost in the vicinity of DTZ7445. From 2030 until 2130 I "H" Company received five rounds of 76mm artillery and 10 rounds of 82mm mortar fire. The 81mm mortars and supporting 4.2mm mortars returned fire on enemy mortar positions and supporting 155mm artillery silenced the enemy artillery fire. At 2130 I the enemy fired one rifle shot and threw hand grenades at elements of "I" Company. "I" Company countered with 60mm mortar fire with unknown results. At 2200 I "H" Company was again fired upon receiving 10 rounds of 76mm artillery fire. There were no friendly casualties. Supporting artillery fired counter battery fire with unknown results. Throughout the day the Battalion continued to improve its defensive position.

2 December 1951

During the night from midnight until 0700 I "G" Company received 8 rounds, "H" Company received 6 rounds and "I" Company received 1 round of 82mm mortar fire. There were no friendly casualties. At 0610I one squad from "G" Company departed on a reconnaissance patrol, its destination being DTZ75463. The patrol reached its destination and observed no new bunkers or any sign of enemy activity except fresh foot tracks along the stream bed. The patrol had negative contact with the enemy and returned to the MLR at 0715I. The one squad outpost established by "I" Company at 1800 1 December in the vicinity of DTZ7445 had negative contact with the enemy and returned to the MLR at 0630.
At 1500I ten enemy dressed in white, armed with small arms, moving from DT265461 south to DT268445 were observed from the Battalion observation post. They were fired upon by supporting artillery with unknown results. At 1700I personnel of "G" Company observed seven enemy in the vicinity of DT272459, the 82mm mortars immediately fired upon the enemy which resulted in six enemy KIA. The 82mm mortars then shifted their fire to an enemy mortar position in the vicinity of DT271459, destroying the mortar and causing a secondary explosion. At 1800I "G" Company established a one squad outpost in the vicinity of DT279456 and "H" Company established a one squad outpost in the vicinity of DT284468.
