Memorandum of Understanding

The undersigned, John F. C. Kennedy Jr., Director of The National Committee for The Korean War Memorial, and Edward R. Bondurant, President & Director of The Korean War Memorial, Inc., have met this day, held discussions and offered recommendations relating to joint actions necessary to produce consensus and common agreement between the above-named organizations which will result in the establishment of a Korean War Memorial in Washington, D.C.

The parties hereby agree and understand that agreements cited in this memorandum must be approved by the boards of directors of both the National Committee for the Korean War Memorial and The Korean War Memorial, Inc., before implementation can be effected.

The parties have specifically agreed to the following:

1) That the sole objective of the merged organizations will be the establishment of a Korean War Memorial, and that any affiliated individuals or groups having any other motives will be dismissed.
Forthwith from the organization by the Directors.

2) That the name of the merged organization will be the National Committee for the Korean War Memorial.

3) That directors of the National Committee for the Korean War Memorial henceforth shall all be Korean Veterans; that the Board shall consist of eleven members and that one directorship each shall be reserved for the American Legion, AMVETS, theDisabled American Veterans and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. (See Exhibit 1 for the list of combined directors)

4) That a policy of open books and records will be adopted and will remain available at all times for inspection by qualified members of the public.

5) That the project priorities for the merged organization will be:

A. To obtain a United States Congressional Resolution for establishing the Korean War Memorial by 31 Jan 1985.
B. To fund and open an appropriate and adequately staffed office in Washington, D.C.

C. To design a fund raising program for $10 million and plan completion of the memorial by the spring of 1988.

D. To raise all funds through the private sector.

E. To seek leadership and financial support from the major veterans groups in the United States in establishing the memorial.

6) That Ted Williams be approached and nominated as the Honorary National Chairman of the organization.

7) That the present acting office manager of the Korean War Memorial Inc. be terminated by 30 October 84.

8) That bouquets, chalk, painted, on legal, of all individuals previously connected with the memorial cease forthwith.

9) That lawsuits instigated by the Korean War Memorial Inc.
Against The National Committee
For The Korean War Memorial
And Its Directors Be Dropped Forthwith.

This memorandum is agreed to on 1 October 1984, in the City of Washington, D.C.
