The summary below was written by the Congressional Research Service, which is a nonpartisan division of the Library of Congress.

Korean War Veterans Memorial Thirty-Eighth Anniversary Commemorative Coin Act - Expresses the sense of the Congress that the United States should recognize the 38th anniversary of the Korean War by minting and issuing a silver dollar coin.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to issue one-dollar silver coins to commemorate the 38th anniversary of the ending of the Korean War. Terminates such authority after December 31, 1991.

Directs that surcharges from the sale of such coins be used for the Korean War Veterans Memorial.
