Attention: Mrs. A. Johnson-Crawley,

Dena Mrs. Johnson-Crawley:

In confirming our telephone conversation of today, I hereby enclose photocopies of the requested documents and a copy of our lawsuit against the usurpers of our corporate name.

By separate mail, you will receive copies of the two most recent letters that were mailed to our house file, i. e. lists of donors who have already contributed at least once toward the erection of the Korean War Memorial. The mass mailings are conducted by our direct mail consultants, Bruce Eberle & Associates of Vienna, Virginia.

In compliance to the order of your office no further mail solicitation is being or will be in the future directed to residents of the Commonwealth of Virginia. It is our sincere hope and wish however, that you will reconsider and authorize our organization in resuming its soliciting activity within the Commonwealth.

Of the money so far raised, 95 % has gone to fundraising and related expenses, in conjunction to our contractual obligations with Eberle & Associates. The remaining 5 % has been used for management, administrative costs and public relations. The only asset we have at this point, is a list of 20,000 donors. A year ago that list contained less than 7,000 names. When we started our direct mail campaign in May of 1983, we did not have a list.

As you will ascertain by the study of our financial statement, we do not have a payroll; all the members of our Board of Directors offer their services on a volunteer basis. The undersigned, receives a very modest consultant fee for the full time rendering of his services.

As soon as our Form 990 for the current year is prepared and submitted to the IRS, I shall immediately send a copy to your office.

Sincerely,

Michael Panayotopoulos
Consultant, KWM.
