Funds dispute stalls Korean Honor kiosk

by Nick Addia

Nearly 5 years after the Korean War Veterans Memorial was dedicated on the National Mall in Washington, the long-held dream of building a monument to honor the Korean War veterans is still unfinished.

Although construction of the memorial was supposed to begin last year, the project has been delayed by the ongoing dispute over funds.

The construction of a kiosk to house a plaque naming the veterans is expected to begin soon, but there is no guarantee that the project will be completed on time.

The kiosk will be built with money donated by Samsung Electronics America, Inc.

The company was the first to donate $100,000 to the project.

Do You Remember?
Fort Ord, California???

The U.S. Army is researching the history of its presence in California.

Do you have information about the Army's time in Fort Ord? Please share it.

(800) 387-1910

A HOME OF MY OWN

Featuring Walter and Wylie

Walter, 5, and his 4-year-old sister Wylie, are members of the Army family.

Note: We are currently hosting an event for Army families.

Degrees from some of America's Best Universities can be brought to you!

Approved for Tuition Assistance:

ACT NOW!

Fall Semester begins Sept. 1, 1996.